COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The auditor finished auditing the town books and records last Friday afternoon. It took about the same length of time that it has taken the past few years. The material gathered by the auditor is sent to the State Department of Audit where it is checked and verified. The printed report should be received some time next week.

With the audit finished the accounts for last year are being analyzed prior to the meeting of the budget committee. The budget committee meetings will probably begin the week of Jan. 21.

I am sorry that I don't have the final balances for the accounts for 1962 that I had hoped to have in the paper this week. I will do my best to have them in the paper next week. I can say that the accounts with a balance are greater in number and amount than the accounts with an overdraft.

The week end storm didn't leave a large amount of snow but it kept coming just fast enough to require plowing. It is much cheaper for the town to get a good snowfall and then take care of it than it is to snow a little bit at a time for two or three days.

Michael Houlihan

SUNDAY RIVER SKIING IMPROVED

Last week end's snowfall added almost 15 inches of new powder to the cover at Sunday River and conditions are currently listed as good to excellent. This has been rolled and dragged and there is now a 2-inch packed powder surface on an 8 to 12 inch base. Officials are hopeful of having all trails in use this coming week end.

Co. Attorney Tells of Sunday Sale Law

Selectmen of Oxford County towns have received a letter from County Attorney David R. Hastings regarding the Sunday Sale Law. It is quoted here in part:

"As you know, the so-called Sunday Sale Law passed by the last Legislature made it possible for each town individually to determine what businesses should remain open within the town on Sunday and certain listed holidays. A few of the towns within Oxford County included in their 1962 annual town warrants an appropriate vote under this section, but most of the towns in Oxford County did not properly include such an article in their warrant.

"No complaints have yet been made to my office for violations of this law, but it seems likely to me that such complaints may be forthcoming, and if received they will be promptly investigated, and where necessary enforcement steps will be taken.

"I am aware that many of the towns in Oxford County have a large resort population, and hence Sunday business is important to them. For this reason I have prepared an article which might be included in your 1962 town warrant which if passed affirmatively would protect most businesses who wished to remain open on Sunday. The Selectmen on their own motion have authority under the statutes to include this article in their town warrants, should they desire, and I am hopeful that each of you will see that it is inserted in your town warrant for the coming annual town meetings. According to the terms of the statute, a vote under this law can only be taken at an annual town meeting of the town and not at a special town meeting.

"Once a town has voted to permit businesses to remain open on Sundays, the vote remains in force until it is rescinded at a later town meeting, so that this article need not be included each year."

The following article for this year's annual meeting has been suggested:

To see if the town will vote to permit to keep open to the public on the Lord's Day, Memorial Day, July 4th, November 11th, and Thanksgiving Day as proclaimed by the Governor, all places of business not already exempted from closing under the provisions of Chapter 134, Section 38 of the Revised Statutes of Maine, 1954, as amended; provided however, that such vote shall not be construed to extend to any business or activity specially prohibited on any such day by provisions of the Statutes of Maine other than Sections 38 and 38A of said chapter.

LOCAL ORGANIZATION TO ADVERTISE SKI AREAS — OFFICERS CHOSEN SUNDAY

The newly formed Bethel Area Association held its first meeting at the Community Room Tuesday evening for the purpose of electing officers and making plans for this skiing season. The following officers were elected: Norman Greig, president; Lester Bickford, vice president; Stanley Davis, secretary.

Several interesting projects were suggested for the group to undertake to attract more skiers to the Bethel-Locke Mills Area. It was voted to place the advertising for the Area Association with "Ad Media," a professional advertising agency. The response from the business men of both Bethel and Locke Mill has been gratifying in that nearly all those who have been approached have pledged their support in both money and time. The people of the area have come to realize that by pooling our advertising efforts we can do far more as an organized group than we can as individuals.

Membership is offered to all merchants in the Bethel-Locke Mills area and those participating will be entitled to one vote for each individual, partnership, or corporation.

The first official project of the group is a five day package plan with a reduced rate for lodging and lift facilities at the area and lodging of the skiers' choice.

Those present were Ida Wight, Bertha Davis, Selma Chapman, Mrs. Hastings, Jeanne Fleet, Julia Fleet, and our hostess, Mrs. Foster. The place of the next meeting was to be decided later.

ORGANIZED FISH AND GAME ASSOCIATION

[From the Norway Advertiser-Democrat, August 16, 1935.]

Organization of Mt. Abram Fish & Game Association under the auspices of Bethel, Greenwood and Woodstock has been perfected. The object of the association is to promote the propagation and conservation of Fish and Game; the prevention and pollution and mis-use of the waters of the state; the protection of its forests; the creation of game sanctuaries; the encouragement of outdoor recreation; the enactment of legislation to promote the foregoing objects and in general the accomplishment of such other matters and things as are incidental or conducive to the above objects and to the best interests of hunting and fishing in the State of Maine.

The first meeting took place on August 2 at American Legion Hall, Locke Mills, Me. At this meeting plans were made for the organization.

George D. Kenyon of Bergenfield, N. J., was elected president of the new association. Mr. Kenyon is the largest producer of "One Kind" of seed corn known as "Kato" in the United States. Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon for a number of years have been summer residents in Oxford County and recently they have built a beautiful cottage on the shores of Twitchell Lake.

A committee of three consisting of Mr. Kenyon, Attorney Nicolaus Harithas of Mechanic Falls and W. C. Goodwin of Norway, drew up the By-Laws for the new association which at a subsequent meeting were accepted by the association.

The officers elected were as follows:

President—George D. Kenyon, Corn Producer, Bergenfield, N. J.

Vice Pres.—King Bartlett, Canadian National Railway Official.

Secretary—Nicolaus Harithas, Attorney, Mechanic Falls.

Treasurer—Fred B. Merrill, Lawyer and Banker, Bethel.

Asst. Sec'y—Lewis Terrill, Owner of Terrill Camps, Locke's Mills.

Asst. Treas.—H. E. Day, Greenwood Municipal Officer, Locke's Mills.

Executive Com.—J. E. Howe, Bryan's Pond, U. S. Mail Service; Percy Mason, Boston, Mass., retired, former Boston Police captain; Lester Tebbets, mill manager of Tebbets Spool Co., Locke's Mills; Frank Bean, Supt. of Tebbets Spool Co., Locke's Mills; W. C. Goodwin, General Manager of C. B. Cummings & Sons' grain mill, Norway; Will Yates, Lumberman and Feldspar Miner, Greenwood; F. H. Cole, Jeweler, Miami, Florida.

The membership of the new organization has grown so that by August 14 there were seventy-five members enrolled from the towns of Bethel, Woodstock, Greenwood, Norway, Mechanic Falls and summer residents from other States. The section included under the jurisdiction of the new association comprises not only the towns mentioned, but extends further into Riley Plantation and into the town of Albany.

In this section are found some of the most scenic lakes in Oxford County. Twitchell Lake in the heart of the town of Greenwood, famous for its bass fishing; South Pond, well known for togue and black bass; Round Pond for its pickerel; North Pond, known for its black bass; Christopher Lake on the shores of which the village of Bryan's Pond is thriving, is known for trout, togue and perch; Indian Pond for its horn pout and bass; Hicks Pond for its pickerel and Songo Pond for trout and black bass. Over-set Pond, known for its trout, is located on Patch Mountain near the Greenwood Ice Caves, and the ninth pond found in this region is located in Greenwood City, so-called, and it is named Marsh Pond, well known for pickerel fishing.

The various brooks and creeks that empty in these ponds have a great supply of trout for fishing and for stocking some of the ponds. This section is an ideal place for hunting not only deer but bear, bobcats and other wild animals.

The following letter was received from the Commissioner of Inland Fisheries and Game, Hon. George J. Stobie:

Augusta, Me., Aug. 7, 1935. George D. Kenyon, Abram Fish & Game Ass'n, Bryan's Pond, Me.

Dear Mr. Kenyon:

It has come to my attention that you have formed an Association and that you have been elected president of the same.

Fish and Game Associations have done a great deal in the State of Maine toward bringing about better conditions. I am personally interested in having Associations formed and started in the right direction.

One of the many problems which we run up against is that Associations do not well consider their wants before applying to our Department. Most of this comes from the fact that our own people want only trout and salmon.

Before making applications for fish, each water which you are interested in should be thoroughly studied as to whether or not it is suitable for trout, salmon, togue, bass or perch.

Regarding regulations, laws and such things, will say that this also should be thoroughly studied before applying.

In other words, we hope that your association will be a clearing house for all such matters. We wish you the greatest of success and hope that your association will build up the hunting and fishing resources in your section of the State.

Very truly yours, George J. Stobie, Commissioner.

Two members of the association most active in the recent organization are Berton L. Newton of Bryan's Pond, a young man identified with many activities in that town, and William S. Hastings of East Bethel, a progressive farmer and the largest potato grower in Oxford County.

The members of the Association and the business men of Bryan's Pond are looking forward for a large attendance of the general public at the Field and Dollar Day at Bryan's Pond, Aug. 31st.

of the new association comprises not only the towns mentioned, but extends further into Riley Plantation and into the town of Albany.

In this section are found some of the most scenic lakes in Oxford County. Twitchell Lake in the heart of the town of Greenwood, famous for its bass fishing; South Pond, well known for togue and black bass; Round Pond for its pickerel; North Pond, known for its black bass; Christopher Lake on the shores of which the village of Bryan's Pond is thriving, is known for trout, togue and perch; Indian Pond for its horn pout and bass; Hicks Pond for its pickerel and Songo Pond for trout and black bass. Over-set Pond, known for its trout, is located on Patch Mountain near the Greenwood Ice Caves, and the ninth pond found in this region is located in Greenwood City, so-called, and it is named Marsh Pond, well known for pickerel fishing.

The various brooks and creeks that empty in these ponds have a great supply of trout for fishing and for stocking some of the ponds. This section is an ideal place for hunting not only deer but bear, bobcats and other wild animals.

20 SECONDS with the NAZARENE

Without question, the greatest sermon ever heard was delivered from a mountain pulpit during an outdoor service to thousands of people who gladly stood for the privilege of hearing the Word of God. In this sermon Christ dealt chiefly with attitudes and heart motives. True religion, He revealed, is not so much outer form as it is inner purity.

(Sermon on the Mount, Matthew 5-7)

Rev. Patnode
Bethel Church of the Nazarene

Read John 8:12-20
Then spoke Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world; he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. (John 8:12)

As farm boys many years ago, my two brothers and I had the responsibility of doing the evening chores after the day's work in the fields. Often it would be long after dark before the livestock were fed and watered.

Sometimes the night would be exceedingly dark before we were through. Mother would then place an old kerosene lamp in a window at the house. After finishing our tasks, we would see that lamp, and have no difficulty in finding our separate way back to the house.

This is indeed a dark world for many people—people of different races, nations, and conditions of life. Where ever we may be and however dark the times, in Christ we can see light to lead our world into a better day. He is the light of the world. Whoever follows Him does not walk in darkness, but has the true light of life. The decision lies with each of us to turn to Him in faith.

PRAYER: O Lord, our God, we pray for open minds and hearts. Into them let the light of the Holy Spirit shine, that our lives may be filled with the light of Christ. In our Redeemer's name we pray. Amen.

Thought For The Day
Today I will turn to Christ and look to Him for light and guidance.

Lafean informed the group of the ways the Ski Council operates and told them of the programs it sponsors: its direct aid to skiing, etc. He also mentioned why belonging to the U. S. Eastern Amateur Ski Association would be valuable. Lafean emphasized the important role which social affairs take in such an organization as a Ski Club.

Birth Defects from Thalidomide Spur Mothers in March of Dimes

Grave concern about the widespread problem of birth defects, recently spotlighted by tragic infant deformities caused by the drug, thalidomide, will inspire some two million Marching Mothers to seek their neighbors' support for the 1963 March of Dimes during the last week in January.

For volunteers in the Mothers' March, this concern is not a recent development. The National Foundation-March of Dimes, which observes its 25th anniversary this year, began to attack the long-neglected field of birth defects back in 1938.

Then, as now, medical authorities recognized that birth defects, in hundreds of disabling forms, overshadow all other child health problems. Every year, more than 21,000 deaths throughout the United States are caused by defective prenatal development. Every year, more than a quarter of a million babies survive despite significant defects.

To bring expert help to such children all over America, The National Foundation-March of Dimes—which helped conquer polio by totally supporting the development of the Salk and Sabin vaccines—now has a treatment program well under way.

Also in 1958, the March of Dimes organization initiated a program in the field of arthritis—equally neglected and shrugged off by the public as an inevitable hazard of aging, despite the fact that its severest form strikes children and young adults with alarming frequency.

This year, Marching Mothers will proudly report to their neighbors that a nationwide network of March of Dimes-financed study and treatment centers for birth defects and arthritis is operating at full capacity. Nearly 50 such centers are now open in communities across the country—double the number that were in existence just a year ago, and only the beginning of the network envisioned.

In addition, seven respiratory centers are maintained for

WHY IT IS WORTH IT—Marching Mothers believe every child's birthright entitles him to a full, useful life! They will brave the elements late in January to seek public support for the March of Dimes which finances treatment centers and research for victims of birth defects and crippling arthritis.

polio victims for whom the vaccines came too late. Aid for thousands of polio patients is still a prime responsibility of the March of Dimes.

The birth defects and arthritis centers supported by March of Dimes contributions emphasize early and correct diagnosis, which is the key to effective treatment and rehabilitation. Such detection and care requires the skills of many different specialists, all working together with patient and family.

Until the development of the March of Dimes program, such top-quality attention was generally available only in large medical centers. The families of children afflicted with these crippling have often had to settle for less than the best because facilities were lacking or inaccessible.

The tiny victims of disease and deformity who are born today must rely on current medical knowledge to detect abnormal conditions in time for proper treatment—or on "repair work" to correct disability. Wonders can be, and often are, accomplished.

But the ideal solution—that of preventing disability or warding it off at the very beginning of life itself—is the goal of research scientists whose work is supported by March of Dimes grants. They are adding constantly to the treasury of medical knowledge of how best to treat and, ultimately, to prevent crippling conditions that take such a grim toll of our children's health.

As they pin on their badges bearing the symbolic "Golden Key of Hope," Mothers' March volunteers are convinced that a concerted effort of the public in partnership with science as persistent as the program that triumphed over polio—can speed the day when the problems of birth defects and arthritis will be solved.

1963 OFFICIAL HIGHWAY MAP OF MAINE BEING DISTRIBUTED

The 1963 Official Maine Highway Route Maps are now being distributed by the State Highway Commission. They will be made available to all Maine State Highway Commission offices, the Department of Economic Development, the Maine Publicity Bureau, and to chambers of commerce and travel bureaus.

The 1963 edition of the official road map has a new cover and back page and the map itself has been updated to show all changes made in Maine highways because of additional miles constructed on new location in the past year.

The large clear map is designed to help the motorist in mind to help him find his way throughout the state. The map itself is white, with U. S. and Federal Primary Routes in red. State Routes in black and unnumbered routes in gray. The 16 counties are outlined in yellow, lakes and ponds are blue-green, rivers are blue. The bordering state of New Hampshire and Canada are pink. State parks are a vivid green and cities of 10,000 or over in population are in yellow.

Around the border of the map are eight large scale inset maps which help the motorist locate routes in the urban areas of Rumford-Mexico, Bangor-Brewer, Saco-Biddeford, Waterville, Winslow, Portland-South Portland, Auburn - Lewiston, Augusta and Kittery.

At the bottom of the front page a handy index assists the traveler in figuring distance between 49 Maine cities and towns on numbered highways, parks, camp sites, picnic areas, game management areas, etc.

On the reverse side of the 1963 map the 16 counties of Maine are featured with a picture showing a typical activity in the area and a paragraph briefly describing the principal characteristics of the county. Also on the reverse side is informational material covering the recreational features the State has to offer, historic landmarks and other points of interest. At the bottom of the page is a highway route log with cumulative mileages.

The cover of this year's map has a colorful photo of Maine fishermen preparing their gear for the season's lobstering.

For Safer Winter Driving, Take a Tip From The Pros

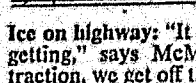

FLINT, Mich. — Winter driving can be safe, enjoyable and more economical if you will follow the same basic rules used by a group of the nation's top drivers — Buick Motor Division's team of professional test drivers.

These expert drivers, operating at the General Motors Proving Grounds test track, Milford, Mich., have been driving day and night, summer and winter, for more than 33 years without a lost time accident. In this period, they've logged many millions of miles on new Buicks.

A. E. McManama, general supervisor of Buick's road test department, says there are certain fundamental rules followed by Buick's driving team for safe winter driving:

Snow and rain: "Both cause wet highways and wet highways are a hazard. Even more important, though, visibility is cut down by either element, and this is the factor that determines your safe driving speed."

2
Ice on highway: "It depends on the traction you are getting," says McManama. "If we're not getting traction, we get off the road."

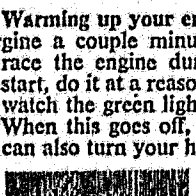

3
Safe speeds: "A good rule of thumb in rain or snow is cut your speed 10 to 15 mph below the 'dry' speed," says McManama.

Clean, clear windows: "If your car stays outdoors at night, a cardboard or newspaper over the windshield (let the wiper blade hold it in place) will prevent your windows from frosting. In driving, an open vent will prevent your windows from steaming. Every window, plus the outside rear view mirror, should be clear."

5
Getting out of a skid: "If you're driving properly, you won't get into a skid," points out the Buick supervisor. "But if you do, DON'T touch the brakes. You have to steer yourself out of it, and you can do this only by keeping some traction."

6
Warming up your engine: "You should idle the engine a couple minutes to circulate the oil. Don't race the engine during this warm-up. When you start, do it at a reasonable speed. In the new Buicks, watch the green light on the temperature indicator. When this goes off, your engine is warm, and you can also turn your heater on."

7
Drive a clean car: "Winter darkness is more difficult to drive by than summer darkness. You don't have the light penetration. A car that becomes covered with salt and road dirt is difficult to be seen by an oncoming driver, particularly against a dull gray winter background. Keep your car clean for your own safety, as well as the car's protection."

McManama sums up safe winter driving in two words — "Be conservative."
"If you think 55 mph might be safe on a wet road, then cut your speed to 40. If there's any question about being able to stay on an icy road, then pull off the road."
"If winter drivers will just remember that they can't operate the way they do in summer, their motoring will be much safer, and more enjoyable, in spite of the weather," McManama says.

DON'T BE A "CALL CUSTOMER"

There were few heating-oil users in the Bangor, Maine, area, who ran out of fuel oil during the recent record snowstorm, according to the New England Fuel Institute. Those who did were mostly "will call" customers — individuals who call their oil dealer when their fuel supply is nearly exhausted.

Most fuel oil dealers place their customers on a "degree-day system" — a plan whereby each customer is always sure of having a more-than-adequate amount of fuel on hand at all times.

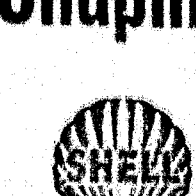

To assure a continued supply of heating oil, you should be sure to inform your dealer to place you on this system, the institute suggests. Thus, when a snowstorm halts traffic in your community, you'll know that your heating oil system will never run out of fuel.
